

ERASMUS +

"Inclusivity and Media" is an ERASMUS + project, co-funded by the European Union Commission. It is developed by five schools from five European countries: Germany, Italy, Romania, Spain and the United Kingdom.

The topic of Flensburg meeting was Inclusivity in the media and the people who took part in it were able to see how Inclusivity plays an important role in both past and present societies.

Students and teachers participated in a rich and varied display of activities and tasks, such as mixedmultinational research-debate-work teams, talks by experts...

The Barcelona one-week meeting focused on our religious diversity and how this helps and impacts on social inclusivity, both on general and local scale.

